Power of partnerships

Using connection and creativity to improve our services.

Join us for a morning workshop at National Galleries of Scotland:Portrait, led by Rowan Alba Artist-in-Residence Sam Rutherford to find out how health professionals, and arts organisations can work in partnership to find creative approaches.

Our Power of Partnerships workshops are held regularly at Farmer Room, Scottish National Gallery: Portrait, 1 Queen St, Edinburgh EH2 1JD

If you are interested in attending, contact our Head of Corporate & Community, Tracey Stewart.
